

Why is this event so important?

A Letter from Jason

Dear friends,

Crystalina and I want to thank you for your investment of time, energy, and prayer in helping us to bring the good news of chastity to the teens and families in your diocese. As you know, the innocence of every member of the family is under attack like never before:

- Young men and women in every parish and Catholic school are not only consuming pornography at pandemic levels, but they're also becoming the pornography on their cell phones.
- For the first time in American history, the majority of US citizens are single. Not only do they feel unprepared for marriage, they no longer see its value.
- Globally, more than one million people contract a sexually transmitted disease every day!
- Even within the Church, there seems to be an unprecedented level of scandal and confusion.

Families are looking for answers. Parents are the primary sex educators, but very few of them have been shown how to effectively bring the message of chastity to their teens, or how to live out the virtue within their marriages.

Therefore, Chastity Project has launched a new initiative with ticketed events that are seeing great success. It's a family-based event that invites parents as well as teens to learn about God's plan for human sexuality. It features my presentation on chastity for the family as well as a presentation to address the topic of gender, with a time of prayer, adoration, and the sacrament of reconciliation for everyone. We will also be distributing free resources to every attendee so that every member of the family can take items home to help them live out this lifestyle.

Our goal is not simply to reach the teens who routinely attend parish events. We want those teens as well as their families to become effective and enthusiastic evangelists to invite others to attend the event, in particular, those who have never been to a religious event before, or those who rarely attend.

The Church's vision of human love is not only true and good. It is beautiful. We need to put our nets out into the deep, and trust that God will do the rest! Thank you for coming alongside us in this great effort to save the countless marriages and families that have yet to begin!

God bless,
